Mothers' Union afternoon tea: a lovely afternoon tea was held for the MU Summer of Hope Appeal on Wednesday 2nd July. A huge thank you from the committee for your support. Along with the money raised at the Coffee Morning in May, we now have £425 to send to the appeal to support women in crisis in some of the poorest parts of the world.

Mission to Seafarers: On this Sea Sunday, a reminder that our church members have for a long time supported the work of the Mission to Seafarers. Today, the charity supports the men and women who work on ships with loneliness, mental health issues and money problems. Seafaring remains one of the world's most dangerous occupations, with piracy, shipwrecks and abandonment adding to the problems that seafarers face. In port, seafarers rely on Mission Port Chaplains for support and to transport them to the nearest Seafarers Centre or local leisure facilities. To find out more about the work of the Mission, please see their website: <https://www.missiontoseafarers.org/>

Kirklevington Church has a new organ, and an inaugural recital will be held on Friday, 25th July at 7.00 pm. Strawberries and Pimms served! A free event, but there will be a collection. All welcome!

For prayer and reflection this week:

This Sunday, the Diocese of York prays:

Gracious Father, by the obedience of Jesus you brought salvation to our wayward world: draw us into harmony with your will, that we may find all things restored in him, our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Today is also Sea Sunday. This Prayer for Sea Sunday comes from the Mission to Seafarers.

Be with seafarers, Lord, on all their journeys. Keep them safe in every danger and close to You, no matter where they are. Bless everyone on board their ships, and help them to work well together. Bring them safely home to the people waiting for them, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Those seeking comfort and healing, or who have requested prayer:

We pray for Edytha B, Joan L, Stephanie C, Helen B, Madge M, Basil E, Marie H, Vera C, Liz B, Jess, Evelyn & Keith B, Merrik B, Mary H, Diana W, and Amy R.
