For prayer and reflection this week

We pray for the clergy and churches of St Hilda's Grangetown and St John's South Bank following the recent tragic events in their parishes and for all those who mourn.

We pray for all the emergency services; for Cleveland Police, for the fire brigade and for the ambulance service, giving thanks for the good work that they do and for their willingness to walk towards danger in the course of their work. We pray especially today for the families, friends and colleagues of PC Tom Clough and PC Matthew Blades.

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

In the communion we pray for the Church in the Province of the West Indies.

Those seeking comfort and healing, or who have requested prayer:

We pray for Harry B, Doris L, Becky, Edytha B, Joan L, Madge M, Marie H, Jess, and Evelyn & Keith B.

We pray for Hollie and Spencer, and for Rachael and Ross as they begin their married lives together following their weddings in church.

We give thanks for the life of David Leyland and we pray for Doreen, Louisa, Johnathan and his family and friends as they prepare for his funeral.

Years Mind: We remember with thanksgiving June Vickers, Margaret Tipler, Margaret Lynas, David Buckle, Neville Holdsworth, George Foster, Mary Walker, John Deane, Beryl Hiles, Finley Croft, Iris Ridley, Sybil Ginty, Ronald Forest, Lorna Bowes, David Reubens. May all whom we remember rest in peace and rise in glory!
