We are 100 years old!

The church will be open on after the service today until 5 pm with displays of memorabilia from the last 100 years. There will be activities for children – grave rubbings, and see if you can find the church mice!

Knitted flowers and church mice have appeared all around Nunthorpe – this is the lovely mouse wedding that you will find on the station platform! A huge thank you to Nunthorpe and Marton Knitters for all their hard work.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

– save the date for your diaries. This year's Coffee Morning will take place on Saturday 26th September, 10 am - 12 noon.

A concerted effort: Following the last of the series of centenary concerts last night, huge thanks are due to Bill Colombi who organised and ran them all. From filing hundreds of pages of sheet music to arranging rehearsals, as well as running the concerts themselves Bill has worked tirelessly to make them a success. Bravo, Bill!

For prayer and reflection this week

The Diocese of York prays:

Generous God, you give us gifts and make them grow: though our faith is small as mustard seed, make it grow to your glory and the flourishing of your kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

In the communion we pray for the Province of the Episcopal Church of Sudan.

Those seeking comfort and healing, or who have requested prayer:

We pray for Harry B, Doris L, Becky, Edytha B, Joan L, Madge M, Marie H, Jess, Evelyn & Keith B, and Amy R.

Following their wedding yesterday, we pray for Elizabeth and Thomas as they begin their married life together.

We also pray for Kiya Phillips and Joss Robinson, and Donna Readman and Paul Gordon, as they prepare for their weddings on Thursday, also Holly Burton and Paul Savage who will be married on Saturday.

Years Mind: We remember with thanksgiving John Walker, Gladys Salton, Gary Turner, Mary Smallwood, Denis McManus, Keiven Jinks, Nancy Davidge, Patricia Tovey, Ashley Woodward, Clara Watson, Jean Griffin, Raymond Abbott, Vernon Bowles, Annie Meynell, and Leslie Tapper. May all whom we remember rest in peace and rise in glory!
